Points Earn Gifts

Points Earn Gifts

I have decided to break down and tell you about this site where points earn gifts, gift cards that is!! I have been keeping it from you for a selfish reason. See if I get people to sign up under my link on this site then I earn points and what do points mean more rewards and more rewards means more ways for me to spend my points!! I have been using this site since 1999 and have earned 86,000 points in that time and have spent 75,000!

So, let's get into how this points earn gifts program works.

Once all signed in you start by clicking on one of the menu choices, Shop, Deals, Coupons, Surveys, Videos, Games & More.

Now you have the opportunity to start building up those points, if you choose Shop you can start earning points by shopping through one of their listed merchandisers. I haven't earned as many points as I could have through the shop link, because quite honestly I forget to do it that way. There is multiple merchandisers that you can earn points through, for example, Amazon, Ebay, Best Buy and the list goes on and on!

I have earned quite a few points by booking hotel reservations through here, this program supports Expedia, which I have found to be one of the cheapest places to book my hotel rooms through. So if you do travel, eat out, whatever and want to book online here would be the not to only get a good deal and remember points earn gifts.

Fill out surveys and earn points, they will send you emails and you just simply click on it, scroll down and you will see a message, "You have new surveys waiting for you in the SurveyZone." Click on "Take Survey Now," and you will go directly to that zone.

It is all so simple and your will be rewarded points that you can cash in on eGift or physical cards for values from $5.00, $10.00, $25.00, $50.00 or $100.00s. Some points redeem as low as 700 points for a $5.00 card for Red Robin, Barnes & Noble, or The Children's Place.

Points Earn Gifts

I guess I have kept you waiting long enough, the long awaited name of the points earn gifts program!! MyPoints.com <https://mypoints.com/> I know you will love earning the points to use for gifts, I have been delighted when I could redeem points and have a gift card to use for someone else or even for myself!

Oh and don't miss the opportunity for earning points by having your friends sign up on MyPoints.com, just follow the process of Refer-a-Friend under the More category. Let me know how this all worked out for you, leave me a comment!!!

Be A Mystery Shopper

Be A Mystery Shopper

Be a Mystery Shopper!! Do you care about customer service? I know I sure do, in fact today I was in a grocery store that the 2 cashiers that were available both looked like they just got done eating rotten eggs, no smiles, no personal connection at all. That is what this mystery shopping program is all about, how to treat customers so that they want to come back.

Secret Shopper will give you the opportunity to help those digital, brick and mortar companies improve customer service.

What does Secret Shopper offer for opportunities? You will be rewarded cash for being a mystery shopper, using your expertise in evaluating customer service in many aspects of the business world. There are opportunities to evaluate businesses such as banking institutions, restaurants, salons, hotels and so many more types of business. Be a mystery shopper that focuses on solutions, productivity and deliver the greatest customer experiences.

I am sure we all have our horror stories of a shopping experience, where the associate just treated you so poorly you just didn't want to even shop at that store ever again. I really have a hard time understanding what an associate thinks they gain by offering poor customer service. I can speak from both sides of the fence, I worked as a customer service associate in a grocery store for a number of years and I know some customers can be a little difficult but you just have to keep that smile glowing on your face and treat them with utmost respect. I have also been a customer and mystery shopper and have experienced some really poor situations.

Client in shop paying at cash register

For 25 years the Secret Shopper company has delivered market research and analysis to their clients. They assist clients in customer-focused industries to provide the utmost customer experiences. Join their company and be a part of helping companies provide their customers the best experience. And the best part you get paid to be a mystery shopper!!
