My friend Kim and I stopped in to have lunch, a new experience for me, I pretty much just like to stick to the traditional foods, you know like the ones you grew up on. I am not one that likes to experiment with a different type of food choice but it was just one of those, "Oh Why Not," times. I had Corned Beef Reuben along with Jicacma Salad and Kim had Vegetarian Caesar Salad.

Don't leave without trying one of their bakery items, Kim & I enjoyed a delicious cream filled cupcake. And oh-la-la the breads, so many different flavors, just such a great variety.
